

GANESH CHATHURTHI

Ganesh Chaturthi, in all its glory, was celebrated pompously with abundant joy and festive spirit in our campus for the first time. NIFT Chennai collectively showed great enthusiasm for the ten day celebration from Sep 3rd to Sep 13th which made the occasion more memorable and a very special one.

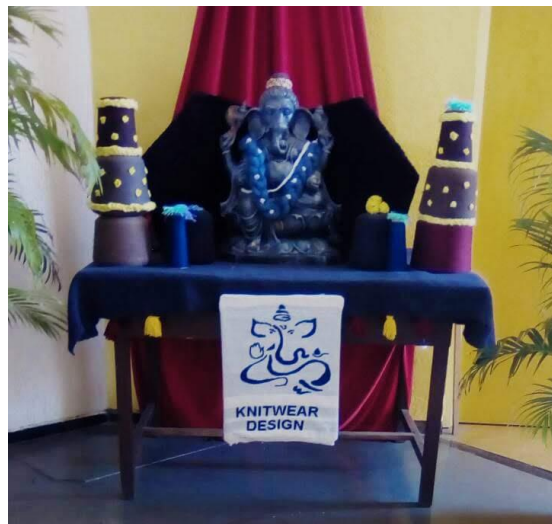

On September 3, 2019, Ganesh Chaturthi celebrations started off with huge excitement. Aarathi was done in the presence of the Director ma'am and Joint Director Sir. Every Department pitched in and each day a department took over the responsibility of decorating the Ganesh Idol and the surrounding.

Right from floral rangolis to rangoli designs made from waste fabric scraps, dressing the idol and the background, singing bhajans, distributing delicious sweets and snacks and even creating a Ganesha idol from waste fabrics; the students and staff of entire NIFT Chennai lent their helpful hands eagerly in one or the other way to ensure each of the 10 days started in unity and enthusiasm.

The celebrations continued till September 13th, with great fervour with the active cooperation of all and the idol immersion was performed as per the practice, bidding Ganesha a fond adieu.

The credit for the successful celebration goes to all those who participated and the kind support extended by the faculty, staff and management of NIFT Chennai, especially the Director and Joint Director who made it a point to be present for every department`s celebration and encouraged all to participate.
