ABOUT MUMBAI

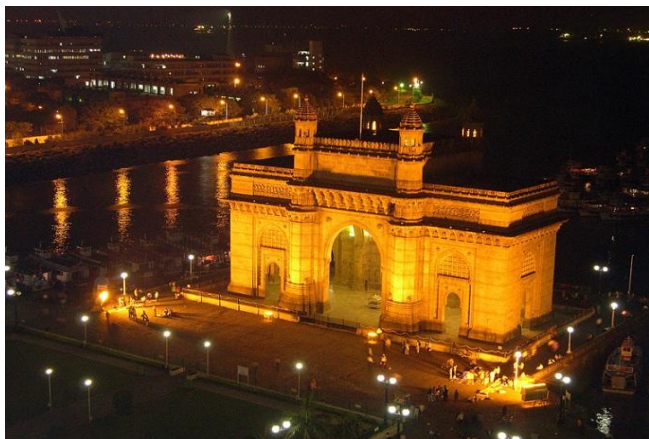

Mumbai, which was earlier called Bombay, is the financial capital of India. Being the most modern city in India, it captures the spirit of the changing pace set by liberalization and modernization. Once a cluster of seven islands, Mumbai was presented to King Charles II in 1661 as part of the dowry, when he married Princess Catherine de Braganza of Portugal. Over the years, as colonialism gave way to independence, Mumbai has transformed itself into an entity with thriving markets, business houses and many different communities reflecting a cosmopolitan and trendy atmosphere. It is the capital of Maharashtra state. Its official language is Marathi although English and Hindi are widely spoken and understood. Mumbai is a shopper's delight with bargain buys, exclusive boutiques, ethnic markets and mini bazaars. This busy city is also the hub of a thriving cultural life, with a constant stream of performances in music, dance and drama. The seat of the Hindi film industry, widely known as Bollywood, it produces the largest number of films in the world.

ABOUT NAVI MUMBAI

Navi Mumbai City Map

Public transport in Navi Mumbai:

Over 80% of the commuters in Navi Mumbai use public transport (suburban trains or buses). It is the most convenient, efficient and economic form of transportation. Kharghar falls on the Harbour line, and one can shift to Central line and Western line by changing trains at Kurla and Wadala respectively. Apart from these, there are also regular and prepaid cabs.

One can avail of AC bus facilities as shown below:

Bus no.123: Jalvayu Vihar (Kharghar) to Borivli

How to reach Kharghar?

Kharghar is located on the outskirts of Mumbai. It lies in what is commonly regarded as the Konkan part of Maharashtra and fall in Raigad District. It lies on the Harbour Railway, a part of Mumbai suburban railway system. Local trains of the Harbour Line in the Central Railway ply between Kharghar and Chatrapati Shivaji Terminus stations and the Western line is connected through the Wadala station.

It takes about 65 minutes to reach Kharghar by suburban train from Chatrapati Shivaji Terminus. For Bandra [W] you need to change at Wadala Rd. to head to Bandra direct. The time taken from Kharghar to Wadala to Bandra would be about 55m journey time alone. You have NMMT buses plying to Kharghar railway station and also local autos. Check if you get share autos. I presume you do.

A drive by road Bandra[W] would be 38km and could take not less than 1.5hrs. Although you drive through some arterial roads, the traffic isn't mild. It takes nothing less than 1.5hrs.

Depending on the BEST/NMMT buses would take a long time and also the buses are limited. You can take the NMMT bus to Belapur CBD and then take bus to Bandra [W]. Route no. 505 takes you direct to Bandra [W] from Belapur CBD.

Best way....

1. Bus / Auto to Kharghar Rly. Stn.
2. Kharghar to Wadala Rd on Harbour Line by Panvel-CST Locals
3. Wadala Rd. to Bandra on Harbour Line by CST-Andheri
