

National Institute of Fashion Technology Shillong

About NIFT Shillong:

NIFT Shillong campus is situated in Meghalaya which literally translates into the "Abode of Clouds". NIFT, Shillong established in the year 2008, is the first premier fashion institute of North-East India. The permanent campus is functional at Umsawli, where the campus is spread over a massive 20 acre area. The permanent campus is a part of the new Shillong township that comprises of prestigious institutes such as IIM, IHM, NEIGRIMS and honorable social bodies such as United Nations resource Centre, Shillong International Centre for Performing Arts, English & Foreign languages University and many more.

The institute boasts of a very close contact with the intellectual art and design sect of the society all over the country. Due to the advantage of being one of the pioneer institutions coming in the state, the institute is now very well networked to satisfy the academic requirements of NIFT at Shillong. The Centre is currently offering Four Undergraduate 4 Years courses - Fashion Design, Accessory Design, Fashion Communication and Textile Design and One Postgraduate Two years course - Master of Fashion Management. The institute portrays itself as a leader in fashion education in the state. NIFT Shillong has committed itself in exploring growth paradigms and to act like a catalyst in formulating the structural roadmap for the apparel and allied industry. NIFT Shillong is looking forward to contributing towards upliftment of the craftsmen through workshops and design intervention.
