

CONTINUING EDUCATION PROGRAMME FOR THE ACADEMIC YEAR: 2026-27

National Institute of Fashion Technology offers a diverse array of Continuing Education (CE) programmes to support the industry, as well as aspiring and working professionals. The wide range of specialized programmes offered by NIFT help aspiring professionals to get trained, entry-level professionals to get advanced training, mid-level professionals to upgrade their skills, and at times also help professionals to re-enter the Industry. These programme have been developed in consultation with reputed academicians and industry practitioners.

CONTEMPORARY BRIDAL TROUSSEAU DESIGN (CBTD)

This programme is offered by Fashion Design department to appreciate Indian and western bridal wear in terms of material, form, texture and color used in contemporary bridal wear and to understand and to learn the creation of patterns through pattern making and draping along with construction and enhance students' knowledge to design garments with innovative ideas, design process, sourcing fabric from market, surface development techniques and garment construction.

COURSE CONTENT

It is a complete programme to avail entrepreneurship in Boutique Management and Bridal Trousseau. This program aims to strengthen the technicalities of fashion related to Indian, western and fusion contemporary bridal wear. It includes learning of designer patterns, technical draping, forecasting, market study and a complete understanding of Indian and world embroideries and fabric studies.

CAREERS

Entrepreneur, Designer Boutique Owner, Fashion designer.

Award	Certificate
Eligibility	Minimum of 10+2
Duration	6 Months- weekdays Monday, Wednesday & Friday 5:30PM to 8:30 PM
Campuses	Mumbai
Seats	20
Course Fee	Rs.80,000/- + 18 %GST (Total Rs. 94,400/- Incl. of GST)
Course Coordinators	Ms. Neena Lokare – Ph: 9011187879 Ms. Shankhlina Choudhury,- Ph: 9872366511