

FASHION TRENDS and ACCESSORIES

Access Stories of Future

The stream is designed for the Post-graduate students. It provides opening towards understanding the gamut of Accessories. Accessory product understanding is a definite value addition for design as well as management graduates.

The course provides an opportunity to map the trends, interpret and establish potential design directions.

The course develops a natural respect towards accessories by way of hands on experience and realize its prominence.